

I support and added my name to the no call list because telemarketing companies ignored my requests to take my name off their lists and to stop calling. Since the passing of the no call legislation I have not received any calls.

If I am interested in a particular companies products or services I have many avenues to pursue the information. I do not need banking nor anyother concerns calling me to push their wares.

Thank You